LIGC

2013 In Revue

It's hard to believe that another year has passed, yet so much has transpired at the LIGC.

Our Losses: We all mourn the loss of our dear members Doug Cowan & John Sangster.

We had a decrease in membership of 10 in 2013

Our Gains: We welcome our new/rejoining members this year: Tyler Brower, Aaron Dye, Kathy Keller, Steve Kyser, Gale Lynch, Tim Madison, Roy Paswaters, Jim & Jeanne Paton, Ted Phillips, Carole & Bill White.

Our Future: The initiation of the Endowment Fund. Members jumped on board early to help build our financial nest that will provide sustainability of the club. Phases two & three will start soon, so stay tuned.

The tide is turning at the LIGC. Please be an active part of it in 2014.

Decorating the Clubhouse Dec. 3rd

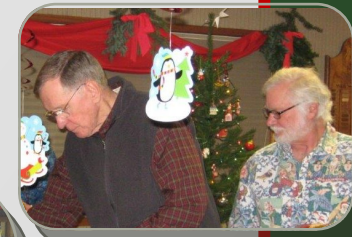

We had a lot of fun spiffin up The Clubhouse for The holiday party. Rita of Course was instrumental in The design department but The rest of us didn't do so bad after all.

Our decorations are showing Their age Though, so now That Christmas is over perhaps you have some nice decorations That you're Tired of looking at year after year. We'd appreciate any donations To replenish The Club supply.

Thanks to everyone who helped and to Joyce, Chris and Miki for providing lunch.

Holiday Party Dec 8th

It was a very low-keyed party, just sitting around and catching up on each others' lives. A potluck appetizer theme and I'm sure it was dinner for all as there was a substantial amount of food. There were games but most agreed they were a little too hard! There were golf trivia questions, photos of some male and female pros and snap shots taken around our own course to identify. So the results.....Bob Gerfy watches WAAAAY too much golf on TV and nobody really pays attention to things on the course. There were a few who participated in the white elephant gift exchange and the best gift of all was the sing-a-ma-jigs that Joyce & Bob brought. Gretchen especially had fun with them but alas, they ended up with Dick Bangsund and rightly so in his goofy holiday attire....slippers that talked and a lighted blinking hat.

A very merry time was had by all!

A couple of answers to the trivia questions:

- ◆ 125,000 golf balls per year are hit into the famous pond on the 17th at Sawgrass
- ◆ Using your driver, your ball will go 8 yds further for every 25° temperature increase
- ◆ Other than golf, Phil Mickelson is right handed
- ◆ There are 336 dimples on a regulation golf ball
- ◆ The golf course with the highest elevation is located in Peru @ 14,335 ft above sea level

Ladies' Holiday Luncheon

Dec. 10th @ The Bay

No dishes, no clean-up....that was the theme for this year's luncheon. We all got dressed up and had a wonderful meal provided by the Bay owners Tim & Kristin Shea. Many, many thanks to them for making our time there so memorable.

We also must thank Gretchen Gruenke who contacted and invited many of the prior lady members. We had a number of them attend and we thank them so much for coming- Norma Brimmer, Joan Congdon, Gale McCallum, Jeanne Storer, Marlys Waller.

Nancy Lynch did all the preparation for the luncheon and went above and beyond with a limerick about each of the current lady members and gave all of us a hand-made bird feeder in hopes that we would all get birdies next year.

WHAT?

Nothing planned in January??? How sad!

Someone must have some idea for something to do at the club. Time to put on your thinking caps!
